

Re: Committee to Secure Justice
for Morton Sobell

During the debate between Cohn and Love, Love stated that in order to effectively prove Sobell's innocence, he would need more time than was available on this half hour show. Announcer Barry Gray at the time and upon completion of the debate, repeatedly offered to Love a period of four hours, which he claimed he could arrange and which he knew his sponsor and the station would grant, for Love and Cohn to have an opportunity for a complete airing of the case. Love did not acknowledge or accept this offer of debating time.

"Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the 'Communist campaign' assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL, the ROSENBERGS' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case."

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell," first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The Address Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, as published by the New York Telephone Company, on April 9, 1962, lists the "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" (CSJMS) as being located at 940 Broadway, New York, New York.

ACTIVITIES

Between July and December, 1962, the main activity of the LASC was concentrated upon sending messages to the President of the United States and to the Federal Parole Board concerning SOBELL's case.

10. PUELCITY

On December 14, 1962, a resume of the case of MORTON SOBELL was presented on the JOE DOLAN radio show at eleven p.m. on Radio Station KHJ, Los Angeles.

Speakers outlined the trial of MORTON SOBELL, stating SOBELL did not receive a fair trial. NAT CORNER was interviewed by JOE DOLAN, who asked CORNER who had attacked and returned SOBELL to the United States. CORNER replied, "the FBI of the United States." CORNER stated further "This is a matter of court record, definitely." It was alleged during the program that SOBELL was convicted on the evidence of a perjurer. It was pointed out SOBELL was imprisoned in Alcatraz "A place for incorrigibles, not political prisoners." SOBELL's case was compared with the historical DREYFUS case, and it was stated the Russians had all the atomic information before the United States started its A Bomb project.

JOSEPH AUGUSTUS DOLAN

APPENDIXCITIZENS COMMITTEE TO PRESERVE AMERICAN FREEDOMS

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations," revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 43-44, describes this committee as follows:

"The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms * * * specializes in propaganda aimed at abolishing the Committee on Un-American Activities and discrediting the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Created in Los Angeles in 1952, the front organization is run by FRANK WILKINSON, an identified Communist who recently resumed the full-time, paid post of executive secretary after approximately a year's leave of absence to assist in a similar campaign by another front in New York City, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"Then the Committee on Un-American Activities held hearings in Los Angeles, September 2-5, 1958, to inquire into the nature of the Party's recent reorganization in California, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms sponsored a series of public meetings to protest the hearings and the very existence of the Committee. Communists subpoenaed as witnesses were guests of honor.

"At this time, leaders of the party's Southern California District, were mobilizing Communists in the area for participation in an intensified campaign to abolish this committee of Congress. Now the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms served the party in this effort was revealed by (Communist Party) District Chairman DOROTHY HEALY in a report to the party's Southern California District Council on September 21, 1960. Mrs. HEALY declared that the party preferred public protest meetings to be held by the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms rather than under party auspices because Communists could attend without danger of being exposed as members of the party. She also noted that Communists advised as congressional committee witnesses could not appear before and at openly Communist rallies without creating the impression that the party was conspiring with witnesses to withhold information from the committee."

A characterization of the Committee to Secure Justice For Morton Sobell (CSJMS) is attached hereto.

A meeting sponsored by the CSJMS was held at the Community Church, 40 East 35th Street, New York City, on February 27, 1963, at 8:15 p.m. This meeting was entitled "How Do You, the Jury, Find? - The Rosenberg-Sobell Case After 10 Years." Estimates of the number of persons attending this meeting were from 500 to slightly over 1,000 persons. A confidential source advised on February 28, 1963, [REDACTED] estimated that the 40 rows of seats in the main hall of the Community Church were filled and estimated that approximately 28 persons were seated in each row. An admission fee of $1.00 was charged each person attending the meeting. b7D

The Chairman of the meeting was Professor G. Murray Branch of Atlanta, Georgia, who opened the meeting with a prayer and gave a short talk in which he stated his personal belief in the innocence of Morton Sobell.

Angus Cameron spoke for approximately 30 minutes in which he stated his belief in Sobell's innocence and advised the audience that a new book concerning the Rosenberg-Sobell case would be published before the end of 1963, which would highlight the injustices and inaccuracies of the Government case.

Rose Sobell, mother of Morton Sobell, spoke briefly advising that she had recently been released from the hospital and thanking those present for their support. Rose Sobell stated that she felt that Morton Sobell would be released before the end of 1963.

A film entitled, "Morton Sobell - A Plea For Justice", was shown which film consisted of interviews with prominent persons who stated their belief in Sobell's innocence.

Helen Sobell, wife of Morton Sobell, spoke in defense of her husband; told of the arrest of Morton Sobell in Mexico and his return to the United States; spoke of the perjuries committed by Government witnesses; stated that there was no evidence that Sobell had committed espionage; made a plea for contributions to help in the fight to free Sobell; and, advised the audience that she was leaving that night (February 27, 1963) for Atlanta, Georgia, where she would see her husband and tell him of the successful meeting just held.

Helen Sobell advised the audience that she had recently written to radio commentator, Barry Gray, and requested that he arrange a program on his nightly show wherein she could debate with Roy Cohn, Government Prosecutor in the Rosenberg-Sobell case. Helen Sobell advised that a memorial meeting, paying tribute to the Rosenbergs, would be held at Carnegie Hall, New York City, on June 19, 1963.

For Morton Sobell

A collection was taken from the members of the audience and it was announced that $1,741.00 had been received as well as an unstated amount of pledge cards filled out.

Roland Watts spoke briefly in defense of Morton Sobell and urged that he be given a new trial based upon legal grounds.

Donald MacNamara spoke briefly and stated that there were many cases in world history where injustice was done in court. MacNamara stated that, in his opinion, the Sobell case was one of these cases.

Rabbi Balfour Brickner spoke briefly and stated that he felt Sobell was unjustly imprisoned. Brickner advised that he had been told that the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) had informed Sobell that he was a "forgotten man" and Brickner stated that the meeting showed Sobell that he was not a "forgotten man."

Professor Fred Rodell sent a telegram to the meeting in which he stated that he was unable to attend due to a death in the family but that he wished it be known that he believed that Morton Sobell was innocent.

The meeting ended at approximately 11:00 p.m.

was addressed to Dear Friend and signed by DAVID L. SOLTNER.
This letter read as follows:

"Dear Friend:

"If your mail is like that of most of the people we know, it has recently averaged almost three fund solicitations a day - all deserving support.

"In this circumstance, it could have been easy to rationalize against placing this additional appeal before you, but we were the only ones to receive the following telegram and knew we couldn't rationalize about the freedom of an innocent man who has already spent 12 years and faces 18 more years in prison.

"With District Court turndown must file Appeals Court. Briefs due May 15 for argument before summer enabling appeal to Supreme Court by fall if necessary. Must pay attorneys three thousand dollars by May 15. Please inform date and amount your committee can provide."

"Helen Sobell

"We have come to admire, respect, and love Helen and her husband and couldn't let them down. Our committee, not having the necessary funds immediately available, borrowed a sizeable sum and forwarded it to Helen.

"We are confident that you will help us repay our loan and perhaps enable us to forward additional funds. We are confident because requests for special funds from the Chicago committee have been infrequent and are made only when a specific situation has made them absolutely necessary. You may send your contribution to the above address or you may prefer to send it to me.

APPENDIXCHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS, Formerly known as Chicago Joint Defense Committee to Defeat the Smith Act

A source advised on April 15, 1958, that the Chicago Joint Defense Committee to Defeat the Smith Act (CJDC) was formed by the Communist Party (CP) in March, 1956.

A second source advised on July 17, 1958, that at a working conference of the CJDC held on June 8, 1958, at Chicago, Illinois, the name of the CJDC was changed to the Chicago Committee to Defend Democratic Rights (CCDDR). The purpose of the CCDDR, according to its "Statement of Principles and Organization" was to "...defend and extend the human rights embodied in the Bill of Rights...and to put an end to the political and racial persecutions which threaten American democracy today."

The second source further advised on May 18, 1960, that as of May, 1960, the CCDDR continued to function within the framework of its stated principles and that in accordance with its "Statement of Principles and Organization" had a number of "Working Committees" which included the Chicago Smith Act Families Committee, South Side Freedom Committee, and Taft-Hartley Working Committee. [REDACTED] made available in January, 1954, the "First Annual Report CCASF," an undated publication which stated that the Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship (CCASF) was incorporated in July, 1943. This document stated, "The Council's affiliation with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship (NCASF) was validated August 11, (1943). The present name was adopted to conform to standard national practice. It should be noted, however, that the Chicago Council is entirely autonomous: the government of its affairs rests exclusively in the hands of its Chicago Executive Board."

A source advised on March 2, 1962, that the CCASF at its annual membership meeting held February 23, 1962, reaffirmed that the main aims of the Council for the year 1962 would be as they had been in the past, that of creating a program of activity with the objective of peaceful co-existence and friendship between the United States and the USSR.

This same source also advised on June 18, 1962, that the CCASF remains affiliated with the NCASF for the purpose of implementing its stated aims of peaceful co-existence and friendship with the USSR but continues to consider itself autonomous in the government of its affairs and program for achieving these aims. Although the CCASF considers itself autonomous in this regard, the leaders of the CCASF are frequently in contact with and its program closely follows that of the NCASF.

The NCASF has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"Following the execution of atomic spies Ethel and Julius Rosenberg in June, 1953, the Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon Morris Sobell, 'the Rosenbergs' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reorganized as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and then at the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morris Sobell in the Rosenberg Case."

APPENDIXFAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party (CP) members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization.

A second source advised that an announcement from National Headquarters of the SWP was made on September 24, 1961, to the effect RICHARD GIBSON had fired the secretary in the FPCC headquarters and was trying to break the SWP influence in the FPCC.

Column 2, page 8, of the February 22, 1962, edition of "The New York Times" contains an article captioned, "Castro Backer Resigns," which announced that ROBERT TABER had resigned as Executive Secretary of the FPCC and as President of the Institute for the Improvement of Inter-American Relations, Inc., which had organized the FPCC in April, 1960.

The leaflet reflects the FPCC plans to accomplish these aims: "By mailing of informational bulletins; organizing public meetings and forums; providing speakers, movies, and slides for meetings of interested organizations; placing ads in newspapers; to visit Cuba and see for themselves what conditions really are:"

(OO:NY)", the WFO forwarded to the NYO and other offices copies of the HCUA pamphlet "Communist Youth Activities (8th World Youth Festival, Helsinki, Finland, 1962)". This pamphlet includes the testimony of one MARCO SCHNECK taken in executive session in Los Angeles on April 25 and 27, 1962 and the testimonies of DONALD QUINLAN and ANN ECCLES at Washington, D.C. given in Public Hearings on October 4, 1962.

A copy of the complete pamphlet is being permanently retained in the NYO Library for reference purposes. That portion of the testimony of ECCLES and QUINLAN which mentions other individuals or organizations is attached to the appropriate copies of this memorandum.

The following Bureau instructions are to be followed in connection with a review of this testimony in the event it has not already been done so under individual case captions:

The office covering the residence of those subjects who testified should thoroughly review the transcripts of the testimony, advise the Bureau of the identities of each person mentioned, and advise of their subversive activities unless such information is currently in the Bureau's possession. Such data should be submitted under the caption of the various individuals identified. These memoranda must contain a statement as to whether or not the individual has been the subject of Bureau investigation and as to what action is being taken on any new information developed.

In those instances where the individual has been investigated by the Bureau and the new information obtained does not warrant additional investigation, you should again give consideration to requesting Bureau authority to interview the individual. Further, you should submit your recommendations regarding the interview of any "friendly witnesses".

In those instances where a person testifies about an individual residing within another division it is the responsibility of this office to advise the appropriate office of the nature of the information and of the Bureau's instructions.

Mr. QUINLAN. Yes, sir, they did. In the American delegation, a literature table was put out on which supposedly anyone could put literature that they wanted to distribute to the Festival delegates. I have a few examples of the literature that the American delegation distributed at the Festival. It included New Horizons for Youth, a number of issues of PYOC (Progressive Youth Organizing Committee) Newsletter, Young Socialist, and Progressive Labor. Pamphlets of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties, the Committee To Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, and the Committee To Aid the Monroe Defendants. In addition, two pamphlets, The Rape of the First Amendment and Job Problems of Youth.

An example of this is an issue of New Horizons for Youth in the summer of 1962, which displays a picture series on the slums of New York. This was the presentation that New Horizons for Youth was giving of America at the Festival. There was an attempt to put anti-Communist literature onto the pamphlet table. However, we noticed that this literature disappeared in ratios which suggested it was being picked up and removed from the table, not by individual delegates, but on orders of the troika to keep it from the delegates.

Mr. TAVENNER. Will you let me see those documents for a moment?

One of the documents which you mentioned was New Horizons for Youth. Mr. Chairman, I think the record should show that the committee's investigation shows that this is published by the Youth Commission of the Communist Party.

You mentioned that the efforts made to put non-Communist literature on this table appeared not to be successful. Do you know the reason for that? Do you know how the documents disappeared from the table?

Mr. QUINLAN. I did not see them removed. However, we had several cases in which they disappeared shortly after being placed on the table.

Mr. TAVENNER. Now is there anything else you desire to state which you think would be of interest and of help to the committee?

Mr. QUINLAN. I would like to state that the Americans who attended the Helsinki Youth Festival were not a representative group, by any means, of political opinion in the United States. The anti-Communist group was very much outnumbered.

To give an example of the impression that these people made on the Festival as a whole, there was one incident which occurred when a stink bomb was thrown into the Swiss anti-Festival exhibit. One of the Swiss was heard to remark, "You would think the entire American delegation walked through here in their bare feet."

All during the Festival the Americans were laughed at, because they were largely of the beatnik type.

The CHAIRMAN. Was that true only of the American delegation?

Mr. QUINLAN. With the possible exception of the Communists, that would be true only of the Americans. As a rule, the delegates were fairly well dressed and the Americans showed a striking contrast to the rest of the delegates in the Festival.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you know who paid the expenses of the delegates?

Mr. QUINLAN. I am not aware of any means of payment. However, there is some question as to one girl, who was conversing with Joan Lawton, I believe, and the question came up as to how she came to the

On March 12, 1963, a confidential source advised that on the evening of March 11, 1963, the Bronx Committee for Civil Liberties and Civil Rights (BCCCLR), a characterization of which is attached hereto, sponsored a public meeting at the Allerton Community Center, 683 Allerton Avenue, Bronx, New York, with 70 individuals in attendance.

The source advised that Sam Nesin, the Chairman of the BCCCLR, was the chairman of the meeting, and that he introduced Helen Sobell, the principal speaker at the meeting, as the wife of Morton Sobell.

The source stated that Helen Sobell identified herself as the head of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell (CSJMS), a characterization of which is attached hereto, and in her remarks stated that her husband, Morton Sobell, had been "railroaded" along with the Rosenbergs. She said that if the Rosenbergs were tried today, they would be found not guilty or would be granted a new trial.

The source continued that a film entitled "Morton Sobell - A Plea For Justice", was also shown at this meeting. According to the source, this film contained film shots of Morton Sobell together with interviews of prominent individuals, all of whom expressed their belief in Morton Sobell's innocence.

The source stated that Helen Sobell made a collection speech at this meeting [REDACTED] b7D

A second confidential source advised on [REDACTED] that Sam Nesin attended a meeting [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] b7D
at [REDACTED] Bronx, New York.

Julius and Ethel Rosenberg and Morton Sobell were convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, on a charge of Conspiracy to Commit Espionage on behalf of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR). The Rosenbergs were sentenced to death on April 5, 1951, and Morton Sobell was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment on the same date. Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were legally executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 19, 1953. Morton Sobell is currently serving his sentence at the United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia.

BRONX COMMITTEE FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES AND CIVIL RIGHTS

On November 22, 1955, a source advised that the Bronx Committee for the Freedom of Political Prisoners was formed in 1952, by Communist Party (CP) members in the Bronx, New York. He described this committee as the type of Communist group that is formed in a local community for the purpose of agitating for amnesty for convicted CP leaders.

On February 8, 1957, a second source advised that the name of the Bronx Committee for the Freedom of Political Prisoners had been changed to the Bronx Civil Rights Committee. On February 13, 1957, the first source advised that the name of this organization had been changed again to the Bronx Civil Liberties Committee. On July 30, 1957, the second source advised that the organization was actively participating in a campaign for the abolition of the United States House of Representatives Committee on Un-American Activities. On March 18, 1958, he advised that the organization was sending delegations to Congressmen in connection with this abolition campaign.

On April 11, 1962, a third source advised that the organization had changed its name again to the Bronx Committee for Civil Liberties and Civil Rights. He advised that the organization was actively campaigning for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, repeal of the SMITH and WALTER-MC CARRAN Acts, as well as for amnesty for all political prisoners, including those in prison under the TAFT-HARTLEY Act.

On September 13, 1962, a fourth source advised that the organization has no established headquarters and utilizes the Allerton Community Center, 685 Allerton Avenue, Bronx, New York, as its meeting place and mailing address.

FOR MORTON SOBELL

"Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the 'Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL,' the ROSENBERGS' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case' . . . ."

("Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated December 1, 1961, issued by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 116.)

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell," first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The Address Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, as published by the New York Telephone Company, on April 9, 1962, lists the "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" (CSJMS) as being located at 940 Broadway, New York, New York.

On page three of the March 12, 1963 issue of "The Worker", an East coast Communist newspaper, is a news story entitled, "TV Network: Censor Morton Sobell Film," which is quoted in part as follows:

"Censorship in any form runs directly against the American tradition of freedom," said Norman W. Walt Jr., Vice President of WCBS-TV, in a television editorial a few weeks ago.

"Yet WCBS-TV has censored the civil rights film, 'Morton Sobell: A Plea for Justice,' right off the air. Like other TV and radio stations in New York WCBS-TV has refused to permit the Committee To Secure Justice For Morton Sobell to buy time to show the film or to play the soundtrack.

"WCBS-TV, WOR-TV, WABC-TV, and WPIX similarly refused to sell air time to the Committee for the presentation of the film...

"Incidentally, none of the television stations, according to the Committee, even bothered to examine the film, except for WOR.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, NEW YORK (100-107111)

FROM : SA NICHOLAS J. PURCHIA

SUBJECT: COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL
IS - C; ISA - 1950

DATE: 3/20/63

The "Morning Freiheit" of 2/26/63, on page 3, columns 2-5, continued on page 6, columns 4-5, contained the following article by REUBEN YUKEKELSON entitled: "The New Appeal For Morton Sobell".

Tomorrow, Wednesday, February 27th, in New York, at the Community Church (40 East 35th Street), there will be a big mass meeting sponsored by the "Committee To Secure Justice For Morton Sobell".

It is almost 13 years that the young scientist Morton Sobell has been languishing in prison, to which he was sentenced to 30 years. Important personalities - ministers, scientists, jurists and writers - have spoken up that Sobell was convicted on unfounded proof which hired witnesses fabricated and that he is a victim of the McCarthy terror which prevailed at the time the trial took place.

Let me give you at least excerpts from a number of letters - of hundreds of similar ones - which were sent to the "United States Parole Board", which had before it an appeal to free Sobell after having served twelve years in jail.

On February 6th the Parole Board rejected the appeal to free him.

Harold Urey - And Others

Here is an excerpt from a letter which the famous physician and Nobel Prize winner, Dr. Harold Urey, wrote to the Parole Board on May 8th, 1962, in regard to the above-mentioned appeal:

"...I have always had the impression that the proof against Morton Sobell was fragmentary was not confirmed in a satisfactory manner by the witnesses for the prosecution".

Jerome Nathanson, head of the "Ethical Culture Society" writes in one of his letters to the Parole Board, in part:

"...I agree with the recently-deceased Judge Jerome Frank, that the circumstances of the trial itself, which was tied to the trial of the Rosenbergs (Ethel and Julius), was not an ideal climate in which Mr. Sobell could get a just hearing".

In a similar letter, Clarence E. Pickett, leader of the Quakers in Philadelphia, writes that Sobell's trial "took place at a time when the atmosphere was permeated with anti-communist fever. Therefore there is strong doubt about the justice of the sentence against him".

These are only three of a long list of letters and other documents from personalities, in this country and in other countries, who followed the trial of Sobell, and of others who read the book "Was Justice Done"? which the famous professor Malcom P. Sharp wrote.

A Product Of McCarthyism

As time goes on there is additional confirmation that the McCarthy hysteria, which was rampant at that time, as well as the cold-war atmosphere, contributed a great deal toward the death sentence against the Rosenbergs and the brutal sentence against Morton Sobell.

This was confirmed for the n'th time, by an answer which Robert Jennessy, lawyer for the Department of Justice, gave to a question by Justice Thurgood Marshall at a hearing before the "Circuit Court of Appeals", at Foley Square, in New York, on December 7th, 1962 - in connection with an appeal for Sobell. The question Marshall asked the government lawyer was : "If Ethel Rosenberg had been sentenced, let us say last Spring, and we were to have that sentence before this Court, wouldn't that conviction be overthrown - in accord with a decision of the United States Supreme Court in regard to the Gruenwald trial?

This question, which was raised by Justice Marshall in the presence of the other two Justices of the above-mentioned Court of Appeals - Justice Henry J. Friendly and Thomas W. Swan - in the middle of a speech by the government lawyer, was a big surprise to the observers in the Court, as well as to the lawyers for the defense, no less than to the representatives of the Department of Justice.

After a lengthy pause, Mr. Jennessy - interrupting his speech - answered the above question with: "This Court would probably hand down a decision in favor of the defendants".

In other words: the lawyer for the government was forced to admit that that sentence against the Rosenbergs, which also resulted in the gruesome sentence against Morton Sobell, was not completely just.

New Appeal To The Supreme Court

On the basis of this fact, on a moral basis, and on the basis of other proof, an appeal is now being prepared to the Supreme Court, to grant a new trial for Sobell.

It is the general opinion of judicial specialists and of a large number of outstanding personalities who have paid serious attention to the developments in the struggle for Sobell's liberation and who studied the facts in conjunction with this historic trial, the results of which resounded in many countries throughout the world, that there is justification for such an appeal and that there is basis for expecting that the Supreme Court will accept this appeal.

At the same time the Committee to Free Morton Sobell, which is supported by a great number of famous intellectuals, ministers and civic leaders - is supporting a petition to President Kennedy to appoint a special commission to investigate the entire Sobell matter from the very beginning and which will also investigate the reasons and motives behind the actions of the United States Parole Board.

The action of the Parole Board in rejecting the appeal was criticized sharply and caused astonishment among leading people who characterized this act as "political injustice which besmirches the image of the United States in the eyes of the world". Among those who have expressed such thoughts are: the famous author Dwight McDonald, Rabbi Philip Horowitz, of Cleveland, the Rev. David Calwell, of Washington, the famous lawyer William Kunstler, of New York, psychiatrist Tom Levine, and Thomas Emerson, Professor of Jurisprudence at Yale University.

The Important Statements by Prof. Emerson and Rabbi Horowitz

It is Prof. Emerson who raised the question of a petition to President Kennedy to investigate the action of the "Parole Board". This action, Prof. Emerson said, is "A disgrace to our democratic society". And Dwight McDougald labeled the "Parole Board" action "disgraceful" and suggested that "the only reason for such an action, as I conceive it, is political prejudice...If not for this motive, and taking into account Sobell's record during the years that he has been in jail, his appeal for parole would have had to be approved".

Most interesting and correct are the following words which Rabbi Philip Horowitz said:

"What a sad fact it is that famous criminals fare better than a person who has definite political convictions!"

At the same time he underscored the importance for the President to take action to correct this injustice. By doing this he would still the just anger which was caused by the action of the "Parole Board".

At the meeting in New York on Wednesday, and at similar meetings which will be held in other cities across the land, all these, and other facts will be revealed for the purpose of renewing and strengthening the fight for the liberation of Morton Sobell.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~APPENDIXCOMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL

"Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the 'Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL,' the ROSENBERGS' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg case'..."

("Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated December 1, 1961, issued by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, Page 116.)

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell," first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The 1960-1961 Borough of Manhattan telephone directory lists the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell as being located at 941 Broadway, New York, New York.

A source advised that the Seattle Sobell Committee was formed during April, 1959, by an organizer of the Sobell Committee from Los Angeles. JOEY BEATLIE, a member of the Socialist Workers Party in Seattle, was named Chairman, and CAROLINE CANAFAX was named Secretary.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 12450.

A second source advised that CAROLINE CANAFAX was a member of the Communist Party in April, 1961, in Seattle.

A third source advised that the Seattle Sobell Committee met at Seattle on March 8, 1962.

This same source advised that this Committee's purpose since its inception has been to raise funds and obtain public support for the release of MORTON SOBELL from prison.

On February 18, 1963, Dr. WALTER S. KOSKI, Professor of Chemistry, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland, made available a copy of a letter which was received by him, dated January 8, 1963. On the letterhead appeared WALTER SCHNEIR, 42-34 Elbertson Street, Elmhurst 73, New York.

This letter reflected that SCHNEIR and his wife are presently completely a book which deals with the ROSENBERG - SOBELL case and that they were writing to him to ask whether their interpretation of certain parts of his trial testimony are correct.

Enclosed herewith to the Bureau is the copy of the letter furnished by Dr. KOSKI. Enclosed for the New York Office is a photostat copy of the copy furnished by Dr. KOSKI.

Dr. KOSKI stated that he had also received a telephone call from WALTER SCHNEIR when he made no reply to this letter in which SCHNEIR urged him to answer the letter. Dr. KOSKI stated that he is inclined to reply to SCHNEIR that his testimony stands on its own and needs no further interpretation. However, he stated that he has not yet definitely made up his mind as to whether he would so reply to WALTER SCHNEIR.

FOR MORTON SOBELL

"Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the 'Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL,' the ROSENBERGS' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case' . . . ."

("Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated December 1, 1961, issued by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 116.)

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell," first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The Address Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, as published by the New York Telephone Company, on April 9, 1962, lists the "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" (CSJMS) as being located at 940 Broadway, New York, New York.

ROSENBERG-SOBELL TRIAL IS STILL IN 10th YEAR

Against Court Decision Against Sobell Filed
by Attorney Towland Watts

Dear Denis Macnamara, or Chairman, Directors, Board of Parole to Sobell's Political

New Sobell Documentary Film Shown

NEW YORK - Persisting questions in the trial of Morton Sobell and Ethel and Julius Rosenberg are being examined tonight at a meeting at the Communist Church of New York, 40 East 35th Street, 10:15 P.M.
The gathering branches similar activities throughout the country in the 10th year since the Rosenbergs were executed.

In prepared remarks, speakers urged freedom for Morton Sobell, still fighting to prove his innocence of the conspiracy to commit espionage charges on which he was convicted and now at the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., in the 13th year of a 50-year sentence. The Rosenberg proclaimed their innocence and took white pleas to spare their lives.

Ronald Wagon, attorney, special counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union and former national secretary of the Workers Defense League, cited the recent U.S. Appeals Court decision that as the law is now interpreted, Ethel Rosenberg and Morton Sobell "could have been entitled to a new trial had the point been raised on original appeal." The decision, handed down on Feb. 6, 1963, cited a Supreme Court opinion that trials are unfair when the credibility of a defendant is attacked by the prosecution because that defendant had previously stood on the 5th Amendment, and Court decisions that co-defendants in such circumstances were also entitled to a new trial. The Court recognized that the questioning of Ethel Rosenberg came under the present interpretation of the law.

Mr. Wagon observed: "It might have been possible—the Court of Appeals says—for Ethel Rosenberg now to argue that same rule successfully. But it is now too late for Morton Sobell. Unfortunately it is too late for Ethel Rosenberg too."

The attorney cited the Appeals Court opinion that litigation cannot be interminable and that the interests of those already convicted must yield. But, said the court, put in "practically" "impair the ability of government to discharge its duty to protect and its citizens." He described the Appeals' analysis of "unreasonable error" in trial or appeal judgment that leaves a client "in prison—or dead."

Mr. Wagon commented in other words, a little bit—like 20 years of injustice may sometimes be tolerated to preserve the pillars of freedom. This concept is, in my opinion, a dragging of the scales of justice.

In recent years, this concept of balancing the rights of individuals against the legitimate claims of organized society has assumed increasing prominence in the field of criminal law, particularly in a case that touches upon the interests of national security. It is time that the time has come to reweigh this concept and to redress this balance. I hope that it will be done so here.

Donald E. J. McNamara, Dean of the New York Institute of Criminology, told the gathering. Few criminologists or legally trained persons can read the transcript of Morton Sobell's trial without concluding that reasonable doubt as to his guilt or even an involvement in the so-called Rosenberg conspiracy is implicit in the paucity of evidence which applies to him specifically and even more so in the character of the one witness who explicitly involves him.

Dean McNamara said most penologists would label the sentence excessive, and that most students of probation and parole would question the justice and propriety of applying differential and prejudiced criteria to decisions regarding parole. He asserted: "The refusal to grant parole to Morton Sobell is a political and not a penological decision and an abuse of discretion by the United States Board of Parole."

The parole of Morton Sobell was strongly urged by Rabbi Haimou Bruckner, director of the Joint Commission on Interfaith Activities of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the Central Conference of American Rabbis. Rabbi Bruckner said that, apart from questions of guilt or innocence, "to continue his confinement would be more an act of vindictiveness than an act of justice, and I most passionately plead for his parole."

Rabbi Bruckner, one of 2500 clergymen who have urged Sobell's release, said: "I have had the opportunity to visit Morton Sobell."

in his confinement at the Federal Penitentiary in Atlanta and have offered to be his parole advisor when he is released.

Other scheduled speakers at the meeting, titled "How to Save My Life," and the Rosenberg-Sobell case 10 years later, included Prof. Murray Branch of the Interdenominational Center in Clanton, Ga., as chairman; Angus Cameron, noted book editor; Prof. Fred Models of Yale Law School; Helen Sobell, wife of Morton Sobell, and Rose Sobell, his mother. This meeting was sponsored by the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, and funds collected at the gathering were to be used for further appeals to the public and to help carry an appeal from the recent Appeals Court decision to the United States Supreme Court.

Those who have appealed for Sobell's release on many grounds include: Lord Bertrand Russell, Dr. Harold D. Cure, Mr. John C. Bennett, Robert Bolt, Dr. Martin Super, Dr. Edmond Gann, Pablo Casals, Lord Thorley, Gabriel Maurice B. Clendinning, Mrs. Ruth, Queen Mother of Belgium, Dr. Thomas A. SUBJECT: ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT 1963 PROGRAM

Dear Friend:

The moment had come when the crucial question would be answered: How would the public react to the new 1963 meetings on the theme: How do you, the jury, find? The Rosenberg-Sobell Case After 10 Years?

The huge Community Church of New York can look forbiddingly empty in that vast hall. In the past, when audiences began to come at 8:30 a.m. on Feb. 27th, it was packed with some 3000 people. What is more important, there was an atmosphere of enthusiasm more dramatic than at any time. New faces were seen, people who had not attended a Sobell gathering for a long time were there.

The meeting gathered steam as it went along. The film had a sharp impact. New speakers took part, including Norman Watts, Special Counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union, Donald MacNamee, Dean of the NY Institute of Criminology, and Rabbi Bailour Bruckner, who has agreed to serve as Sobell's parole officer and has visited Morton and Anita. Dean MacNamee and Rabbi Bruckner proved to be exceptionally dynamic speakers, for the kind who shake the rafters of any auditorium. Those who attended left with a feeling of responsibility to take further action on freeing Morton and exposing the Rosenberg-Sobell Case.

Enclosed is a new release on the keynote meeting, and we will be happy to tape excerpts for your committee to hear. In hope of providing ideas for what you are planning in your city.

The Los Angeles Committee, inspired by the excellent Sobell's new more than full-time secretary, Nat Corner, is doing its working on its June meetings. We hope you have begun plans for your big June meeting, and meanwhile suggest that you hold a series of house meetings and smaller functions to organize and lead up to the important event in June on June 10th Anniversary. The timeliness is strengthened by the admissions of the injustice of prosecution made by the chemist as indicated in the recent appeals court decision. It provides a powerful opportunity. Although this decision rendered on Feb 6 denied the two motions as described in the finding. Legal analysts gave us good grounds for going to the Supreme Court where our petition will be filed on April 15. Unfortunately, however, because of the time and pressure of our previous commitments too great to come into the case at this time.

COMMISSION OF INQUIRY

We are encouraged to report that nearly 100 persons of stature have joined the initiating committee calling for a Commission of Inquiry. The list is enclosed so that you can see who is participating from your area, and be helped in personally contacting them if you want to take part from your community. Now that progress is under way, it looks like, with the combined efforts of all committees, almost any group will result.

The calling for an inquiry or civil investigating committee will give dramatic impetus to the June event which will take place in many cities including a June 19th meeting at Carnegie Hall in New York followed by the pilgrimage to the cemetery on Long Island on Sunday June 22nd. We are preparing new material that will carry the message of those calling for the inquiry.

We ask that you do the following: Plan to nominate or more delegates you will send to New York to the June event to represent the will of your community to free Morton and establish the truth in the case. Plan on your delegates bringing the listing of names of leading people in your city to join the civil investigating committee for the inquiry. The result should be an impressive expression of national determination to help formation of the actual inquiry Commission in the case.

MORTON'S BIRTHDAY

April 14th is Morton's 46th birthday. Please be sure to send greeting cards to him at the following address:

Dr. Louis Morton Schell, 9 N. B. 719-2, Glenview, Illinois

The greatest birthday gift, however, will be the carrying out of special plans needed to make for the after-50 national program decided upon at the last national conference.

Sincerely,

EVAN M. HARRIS
SECRETARY, COMMISSION

MOVES IN AN HISTORIC OPINION IN THE ROSENBERG-SOBELL CASE

A copy of the complete opinion is available for your study.

Write to SOBELLA COMMITTEE, 940 Broadway, New York, NY

The United States Court of Appeals of the Second Circuit on February 6, 1963, officially acknowledged in a unanimous decision by Justices Swan, Friendly and Marshall that under the law as interpreted today, Ethel and Julius Rosenberg and Morton Sobell would have been entitled to a new trial and Supreme Court decision in the case known as Grainwald specifically condemns the unfair prosecutive tactics of the variety used in the Rosenberg-Sobell trial and the latest appellate decision says there is no question but that aspects of the prosecution's cross-examination of Ethel Rosenberg would have invalidated the trial under Grainwald. The court also agrees that subsequent decisions show that co-defendants are also entitled to a trial under such circumstances.

Does Morton Sobell now obtain a new trial?

The answer is no. The Court of Appeals says it is too late for him to raise the issue, that the time to have raised it was on direct appeal immediately after the trial and that even though the trial would be set aside under present law, it was in accordance with the law as interpreted then.

We ask to study this opinion because we believe it poses serious moral as well as legal problems. We hope the Supreme Court will now reverse the denial of a new trial to Morton Sobell just as the Supreme Court reversed the same Second Circuit to establish the Grainwald principle. Indeed, it seems evident in reading the opinion that the Circuit Court is struggling to narrowly interpret the overriding decision of the Supreme Court.

The situation that now exists is an ironic one, if a trial is admittedly unfair by Supreme Court standards, is it just to keep a man in prison because the courts say the injustice is pointed out too late?

And that of the Rosenbergs, the situation is academic for them. But all Supreme Court decisions the courts can muster will not change the basic fact placed before world opinion by the new court decision and by standards of fairness now the law of the land, the Rosenberg-Sobell trial was unfair.

Finally, the key points are as follows:

1. The case against the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell was re-opened by the prosecution having attacked Ethel Rosenberg for previously raising the 5th Amendment. At the time, the courts had not ruled against such prosecutive tactics since the 1940s.

Supreme Court in the Grainvald opinion has vigorously condemned them. The Appeals Court recognized that the Rosenberg-Sobell trial comes under this scope.

2. However, the court says it is too late to raise the issue unless Morton Sobell could establish that it was a Constitutional one falling within the habeas corpus & thus permitting collateral attack at any time. While the court acknowledges that Sobell would have been entitled to a new trial, trial procedures are not equated with a Constitutional violation. To raise it now, the court says in effect, Morton Sobell himself would have had to be the witness attacked for using the 5th Amendment.
3. Another important part of the appeal brought out that although Morton Sobell was given a lifetime sentence, the jury never was asked whether to find it, that he was supposed to have done it. (Sobell was maintained in complete innocence) was in power for peacetime. Therefore, there should be a new trial, or Sobell's sentence should be reduced to the peacetime one under Appeals Court finds substance in this argument that the jury should have been able to consider the case, but also gave it a top rate to raise this. It should have been raised at the trial, the court says.

OTHER REASONS

The Appeals Court opinion, which is 29 printed pages, is a study in how a Court twists and turns to avoid releasing a man in a case of great magnitude. Consider the following quotes from the opinion:

There is an inevitable attraction in the position that a person convicted on a serious crime should receive a new trial whenever a later decision of the highest court indicates that with a penalty of a hundred to a hundred years should have been followed at his trial in any consequential respect. It is for courts to yield broadly to that attraction not only to avoid cause for criticism in these criminal cases, (b) the interference 332 U.S. 23, 183 F.2d 101, with the sole interest of those already convicted of crime, would drastically impair the ability of the Government to discharge its duty of protection which it owes to all its citizens.

At the point on which Sobell now relies had been raised and sustained on appeal, that could on no account have led to a direction for acquittal, even under all the elaborate safeguards which this country properly surrounds those charged with crime. He could have led only to the appeal, in which it seems unlikely that the result as to any of the defendants, on have differed. When a claim is raised upon direct appeal, as this could have been, and is there sustained, it is not likely to be had reasonably, unless witnesses are not available and that recollections are still fresh. In contrast, to collateral attack, can come at any time, at least normally, it is quite academic to ask for a new trial in ten or fifteen years after the event, in most cases to direct one after such an interval is impractical.

result to order a release from further punishment, although the defendant does not even contend he is entitled to that relief from the courts. When a defendant who has been tried fairly in accordance with the law as it was understood at the time seeks judicial relief because of new light on a point of law affecting an aspect of his trial, this request must be balanced against the national claims of organized society as reflected in the penal laws.

QUESTIONS POSED BY THE DECISION

How can the Appeals Court today presume to say what the verdict could have been had a new trial been granted? The whole idea of a new trial is another chance, and for the court to pre-empt what a second jury could have decided is academic. And what of the release from further punishment the court talks about? Morton Sobell is now in his 11th year of imprisonment. Will society be cheated by his release? (He is now eligible for parole.)

The latest "robust" ruling is the second ruling along these lines. Previously, the U.S. Court of Appeals has ruled against prosecution tactics in an aspect of the Rosenberg-Sobell trial were "wholly reprehensible" and had the defense so moved a mistrial should have been granted.

While there are many complexities for attorneys to debate here, and maybe the Supreme Court will at least accept an appeal on review, there are moral factors that go beyond legal points.

A man is not a statistic. And this is not, then, however the courts may reason, "a man is unjustly imprisoned." A free country whose morality is such that the Government of the United States can say to a man, "yes, we realize you have a point, here about being unfairly tried, but 13 years of imprisonment has gone by, so it's really too late to do anything about it. Besides, you were given a new trial, now, you would go to see, and that wouldn't be tricky."

We submit that when the Court speaks for "benefit of mankind" in its opinions, it is inevitably reminding that two persons were executed in this case and therefore striving to protect the verdict and remaining sentences. Professor Francis Wortmuth of the University of Illinois on a previous occasion referred to Morton Sobell as "the man in the iron mask of American jurisprudence." This opinion upholds Professor Wortmuth's characterization.

A source advised on April 25, 1962, that the Los Angeles Sobell Committee is the Los Angeles, California, affiliate of captioned organization.

Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL,' the ROSENBERG's codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953 and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg case'...."

SYRACUSE SOBELL COMMITTEE (SSC)

On July 10, 1959, [REDACTED] Syracuse, New York, furnished information which reflected that the Syracuse Sobell Committee was affiliated with the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, 940 Broadway, New York 10, New York, and that the Syracuse Sobell Committee had been formed for five years. b7D

A confidential source advised on June 6, 1962, that the Syracuse Sobell Committee was still in existence and that LILLIAN REINER was the titular head of this organization with ERIE COHN the Treasurer, and JANE ANDERSON and ELIZABETH ALLEN being Co-Secretaries of the Syracuse Sobell Committee.

Another confidential source advised on January 15, 1962, that the Syracuse, New York Chapter was one of the affiliates of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Eastern Region of the United States.

On July 2, 1962, another confidential source advised that the purposes and aims of the Syracuse Sobell Committee were, insofar as this source was concerned, the same as those of the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, namely, to continue to fight for the parole of MORTON SOBELL and to raise funds on his behalf to carry out this fight successfully.

Another confidential source advised as follows:

As of March 11, 1951, LILLIAN REINER was not known as a Communist Party member, but as Chairman of the American Labor Party at Syracuse, New York, she worked closely with Communist Party members.

(See Appendix for characterization of the American Labor Party.)

As of December 29, 1951, ELSIE COHN was a member of the Communist Party.

As of December 5, 1952, JANE ANDERSON and ELIZABETH ALLEN were long-time members of the Communist Party at Syracuse, New York.

AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

"For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn Sections of the American Labor Party, but outside of the New York City area, they have been unable to win control." (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 78.)

"Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the *** American Labor Party. The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label." (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)

On October 7, 1956, PETER HAWLEY, New York State Chairman, American Labor Party, publicly announced the American Labor Party State Committee unanimously approved a resolution dissolving the organization and ordering the liquidation of its assets.

SUBVERSIVE ORGANIZATION CHARACTERIZATION
IS- C

The deadline for this project is May 21, 1963.

Pursuant to instructions set forth in Part II, Section 4, pages 21-23, of the Manual of Rules and Regulation, the NYO must submit annually by June 1st certain information concerning the characterization of organizations.

The above-captioned organization is among those organizations on which a characterization has previously been submitted and should be brought up to date, or one on which a characterization should be submitted.

SA [REDACTED] is assigned to review the existing characterization on captioned organization to determine if the characterization is current, or to review the case file and prepare an original characterization where none exists. b7C

All characterizations should be rewritten to reflect current status of the organization and should be clear and concise. They should reflect date organization formed; its aims and purposes; subversive initiation, domination, or control; and current status. Information in the characterization should be attributed to "a source" and no "T" symbols nor evaluation of the sources should be reflected in the characterization. The identity and evaluation of the sources used should be reflected at the end of the characterization under the heading "Sources," with sufficient spacing to indicate it is not part of the characterization.

Characterizations of organizations will fall in one of the following categories:

- (A) Organizations which have become defunct since June 1, 1962.

If the organization is newly formed, submit a memorandum for file with a copy for the subversive organization file (100-90311) reflecting Bureau file and a statement reflecting information set out in category "B." These memoranda should be forwarded to SA [REDACTED] Section 41. b7c

If the organization falls within item "C." then prepare an up-to-date characterization, except in those cases where a current characterization has been submitted since April 1, 1963. In the latter case, merely submit a memorandum as above, reflecting date characterization submitted and Bureau file number.

Pursuant to current Bureau instructions the up-to-date characterization must be submitted to the Bureau on letterhead stationery which should be prepared as follows:

COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on May 6, 1963 that Mrs. HELEN SOBELL, wife of MORTON SOBELL, would speak on the evening of May 6, 1963 at Rogers Hall, Brown University, under the auspices of the Socialist Discussion Club of Brown University.

The same source stated on May 7, 1963 that Mrs. SOBELL had appeared as scheduled the night before and spoke in behalf of a pardon for her husband. She indicated in her speech that she had been assured by President Kennedy prior to his election that he would do everything in his power to free her husband. She said that since his election, President Kennedy has not lived up to his promise to free MORTON SOBELL. Mrs. SOBELL, according to the source, blamed the conviction and sentencing of her husband on the hysteria that prevailed during the MC CARTHY era, and insisted that her husband was neither a member of the Communist Party nor a fellow traveler.

When asked by a member of the audience if she and her committee had any qualms about accepting aid from the Communist Party, Mrs. SOBELL stated that she did not consider any support detrimental. She added that the committee had never received any great amount of support from the Communist Party.

The source said the above speech was poorly attended and it did not appear that Mrs. SOBELL had made too great an impression.
